Scenes and Persons in the Current News

1—Col. Ruffin Jones, who has been made managing director of Tennessee Centennial Exposition to celebrate the admission of Tennessee into the Union seven years ago. 2—Navy men watch work being done in President Roosevelt's yacht Houghton at Philadelphia navy yard. 3—Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen Rohde, minister to Denmark, on the bridge of warship Nashville.

Senate Lobbying Investigators in Session

Edwin C. Johnson

Edwin C. Johnson and Rep. Sam D. McReynolds of Tennessee, chairman of the house committee investigating lobbying activities, are shown in the senate lobbying committee room in Washington as the committee began its inquiry.

Rhineland Line Seized by Nazis in Either Case

Map showing the Rhineland and the Franco-German frontier.

Model of the 200-Inch Telescope

The 200-inch telescope will be housed in the dome of the observatory to be built on Palomar mountain, near San Diego, Cal. The dome will be 135 feet in diameter and will weigh 1,000 tons. Foundations will be sunk 80 feet into the mountain top.

Miners of Mexico March on the Capital

Employees of a big mine in Pinos-Altos, Mexico, across the border from New Mexico, marching on Mexico City to demand nationalization of mines. President Cardenas and other government officials are said to favor the request. Thousands have set out toward the capital.

UNCLE SAM EASES PANAMA P

New Treaty Emphasizes Isthmian Sovereignty; Paves Wa ern Hemisphere Peace Parley This Summer

By WILLIAM C. UTLEY

A [illegible] new era of [illegible] and "good-neighbor" [illegible] was created as between the countries on the two [illegible] when the United States and the Republic of [illegible]

[illegible] Panama, which was signed [illegible]

[illegible] differences which have existed between Panama and her [illegible] for a century, a settlement which [illegible] three friendly and [illegible] between the two countries, especially as it is [illegible] the United States [illegible] Panama [illegible] the Panama canal [illegible] the Panama canal [illegible] the Panama canal